

Fayette and Lee counties; Fayette the returning county.—G. Paulli, of LaGrange, Fayette county, was born in Prussia, Europe, July 5, 1841, and emigrated to Texas, with his father, in 1855, locating in Fayette county; received a good academic education in normal and high schools, in Prussia; is by occupation a saddle and harness maker; served in the Confederate army, as a private, in Company C, Col. Cook's regiment of artillery, at Galveston; has been notary public and postmaster for six years, at Giddings, Lee county, and was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1875; elected to the present House, as a liberal Republican, by a small majority.